

So Now You're the Family of a Berry Student

Michael McElveen, Ed.D.

Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs & Interim Dean of Students

Why Berry?

- Graduate as self-motivated learners – knowledgeable, responsible and resilient – leaving Berry with a sense of direction, conviction about what matters and confidence moving forward. (Vision)
- Graduate responsible adults with the knowledge, experience, character and passion to improve the communities in which they live, work and serve. (Purpose)
- Not to be ministered unto, but to minister. (Motto)

Launching well

- ☐ What excites you the most about going to college?
- ☐ What worries you the most about going to college?
- ☐ How can I support you during your transition to college?
- ☐ What do you want out of your college experience?
- ☐ What does it mean to be a good roommate?
- ☐ Which areas of study spark your interest?
- ☐ Which clubs or activities are you interested in trying?
